BECOME A MET POLICE OFFICER WITH A STARTING SALARY OF OVER £42K

Become a Met police officer, unlock your potential, support London's communities and help make London a safer city for all.

The Met is working hard to increase trust, reduce crime, and maintain high standards and recognises the need to change.

We're looking for people from all walks of life who share our values of integrity, courage, accountability, respect and empathy to join us and help to deliver the change needed for London and its communities.

Change Your Potential

Policing is a challenging but rewarding career like no other.

With your determination, we will help you reach your full potential as a Met police officer.

You'll have a real impact on the lives of Londoners every day, learn and develop new skills and have access to endless career opportunities all whilst earning a competitive salary of over £42k.

Join us

There are two entry routes to join us as a new police constable in the Met.

- Police Constable Degree Apprenticeship (PCDA)
- Police Constable Entry Programme (PCEP)

Whichever route you choose, you'll be employed as a police officer from day one. You'll receive the best training, combining classroom learning with working alongside experienced officers to fully equip and prepare you for the unique challenges of policing London. Just as important as our officers are our police staff who work behind the scenes, providing the organizational capability to police London.

NO ORDINARY JOB

You'll work your way through the ranks gathering unrivalled skills and training as you progress, all whilst travelling the world and making friends for life. It really is no ordinary job.

We look at you differently; a career in the RAF is about discovering your natural talent and working together to find out what makes you happy, productive and brings you the most value in your life. The RAF is full of ordinary folk who come to us often with nothing more than a desire to lead a less ordinary existence.

WORKING AND LIVING IN THE RAF

There's nothing like a career in the RAF, it's not just a job but a way of living. We give everyone access to training and activities so they can reach their potential and grow alongside the RAF in the UK and abroad.

Joining the RAF will bring you a raft of opportunities and benefits. You'll be paid as soon as you start initial training, accommodation and food will all be subsidised along with free health and dental care.

You can choose to play sport at multiple levels whether it's casually on base with friends or representing the RAF on an international level.

There's choice too, whether you want to take on adventure training at weekends, travelling to areas of the world you never thought you'd see or you want to spend spare time visiting friends and family.

Between work, travel and sport no two days will be the same.

Short term posts

You could be sent on short-term overseas duty to use your skills to help with specific, temporary projects.

This type of duty can vary in length from a few days to a few months, depending on the job and you could be air-lifting supplies to a snow-bound mountain village, rescuing stranded crew from enemy territory or taking part in any number of challenges.

Long term posts

You could be posted to locations all over the world for 2-3 years, working with coalition partners like NATO.

You'll find the same comfortable accommodation and quality food that you would back home in the UK with the opportunity to experience a place you wouldn't normally.

We provide a network of support for partners and children back home or they can join you on your posting.

WHY JOIN THE RAF

- Travel
- Subsidised food and accommodation
- Flexible working opportunities
- 6 weeks annual leave
- Competitive Paid apprenticeships
- Adventurous training opportunities

Do something big, work with small children.

Working in early years and childcare is unique and rewarding. You'll work with young children, providing care and early education that helps give them the best start in life.

Work in a nursery or pre-school

From entry level roles to qualified positions as a nursery assistant, room leader or early years teacher, you'll join a team and make a real difference by providing care and education to children under 5.

Become a childminder

As a childminder, you'll provide personalised early education and childcare to small groups of children of different ages. You'll have the freedom to run your own business and work flexibly.

Work in before or after school clubs

From sports to crafts to music, share your passion and provide wraparound care for primary school children. A great role if you're looking for part-time or term-time only work.

Get qualified on the job

Whether you're leaving school or looking to change careers, you can train on the job with an early years apprenticeship. Requiring no previous experience, you'll be employed by a nursery or pre-school and gain valuable skills and a recognised qualification - all while earning a salary!
